Thanks Kendra!

The Florida Department of Health does not have authority to inspect or regulate mold, leaks or other physical housing conditions in Federal correctional institutions. I will follow up with Ms. Fleming to suggest that she direct her complaints with US Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons and/or their Office of the Inspector General.

File a Complaint About a Federal Prison

To submit a complaint about a federal prison:

1. File a formal complaint directly with the facility.
2. File a complaint with the BOP Regional Office that oversees the facility.
3. Contact BOP Headquarters or the Department of Justice - Office of the Inspector General, which oversees the BOP.

Give the complaint a reasonable amount of time to progress before going on to the next step. Qualified legal advice, as always, remains an option.

Hi Jim

To my understanding, there is no state agency that has funding resources to remediate mold issues. I am copying Tim Wallace at the central office/state health office DOH who may have further insight as he takes public health calls from folks that are concerned about indoor air issues. I have further copied his section lead, Elke Ursin.
